VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 31, 1868. NO. 16.

The Daily Sentinel.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

BE CAUTIOUS IN WORD AND ACT.

If there is one counsel which, during the next ninety days, should be impressed with more frequency and more force than all others upon the Southern people, it is this: Be cautious in word and act.

We entertain the most sanguine hopes that the approaching election will result in a decisive triumph for the friends of liberty and law, and a restoration of the Government to its ancient foundations, now so far removed; and while in the advancement of that most desirable issue little is afforded us to do, it is unfortunately true that we may do much to imperil, or at least, to retard it. In that regard the near past rises before us with the most solemn monitions.

It is by no means certain that the people of the North would not have sustained the President in the fall elections of 1866, defeated Congressional Radicalism, and anticipated by two long years the glorious victory on which we count in November; but two unfortunate circumstances conspired to thwart the retracing steps of those people, and to dash back the tide of returning reason and magnanimity which promised such happy results for the general prosperity of the Republic. One of these was the extreme imprudence of certain of the public utterances of the President. [Unduly attributed to the President, for the most part; or, if otherwise, provoked by designed and concerted insults.—Ed. Ent.] But the far more fatally effective mistake was the riot in New Orleans!

It is no exaggeration to say that that melancholy occurrence turned the scale in fifty doubtful Congressional districts, and thereby secured that two thirds vote in the House which is accountable for all the enormities of the most profligate legislation that ever cursed a people with even the traditions of freemen. Thus was lost for two years the chance of peace; thus was gained military despotism, carpet-bag Constitutions, negro supremacy, the tenure of office bill, and all the multiform enormities which disgraced the last session of the Thirty-ninth Congress and the first session of its successor.

Again an election approaches in which the very issues of 1866 are to be passed upon once more. The country is called on, in the light of the practical experience of two bitter and fatal years, to review its former decision, and hear the great appeal of liberty and the Constitution. The circumstances of this trial are all in our favor.—Congress has marked each passing month of those intervening years with a new outrage upon us, and a new argument, therefore, in our favor. Reconstruction, in its every development, has startled the public ear with some new violation of law, private right, and public liberty. The ultimate purposes of Radicalism, shadowing forth the entire subversion of the constitutional rights of States and people have been fully revealed. The utter and abandoned profligacy of Congressional government has been laid bare to all eyes. The thorough failures of reconstruction to accomplish anything but the ghastliest mockery of freedom, is sorrowfully admitted even by Republicans themselves. The waves of war have had further and full chance for perfect subsiding, and finally the Conservative men of the country have now had abundant time to rally from the terror which the despotism inaugurated by Lincoln so widely spread; they are wondering that so beastly an idol could ever have been thought a god, and are hastening to compensate for their supineness hitherto, by unwonted diligence and determined effort now.

In the most fortunate conjuncture of our affairs, our triumph and the triumph of the Constitution can scarcely be jeopardized, save by ourselves; certainly by no party and no agency can it be so much jeopardized as by ourselves. It is vaguely whispered, and the recent disturbances in this City, at the Federal capital, at Atlanta, at Charleston, and elsewhere, give grave countenance to the rumor, that instructions have been issued from certain Radical leaders in Washington, that conflicts with the negroes must, at all hazards, be provoked at the South between this and election day. This is precisely what every one acquainted with Radicalism must have anticipated. Half that Congress so easily accomplished would have been scornfully denounced as well North as South had not the passions of the Northern people been excited by the systematic lying of Radical presses respecting "Southern outrages." And they have too often profited by this game to slight its assistance now. It is not important to them what may be the origin, or what the character of the victims of these disturbances. A party which could make a hero out of Ashburn, a saint out of John Brown, and a martyr of Dostie, and could find an odor of sanctity in a negro brothel, cannot be very scrupulous about the quality of the material with which they propose to work.

Let us be careful, to avoid even the appearance of violence. If a disturbance arise, let it be manifest that the Conservatives were the aggrieved party, and that the consequences, whatever they may be, properly attach to our enemies, and we will baffle this last and most favored resort of Radicalism. And to that end it is equally desirable, that while denouncing with whatever severity of language the deeds and designs of our enemies, our speakers and writers should do nothing towards inciting a breach of the peace, and thereby inviting the many and irretrievable evils that must certainly ensue.

THE WHITES OF THE SOUTH.

The venerable Daniel Ravenel and a number of the leading citizens of Charleston have addressed a letter to the people of that city, counselling them to forbearance, calmness and fortitude in their trials and troubles. They also vindicate their people from the vile slanders of villainous white men who are regularly employed to slander the white people there, as they are the people everywhere in the South. Some of these slanderers are officials of the Bureau, others officers in the army, and others again the retained partisans fed out of Radical funds. These caitiffs have been industriously engaged in manufacturing lies to inflame the Northern public mind and still further oppress the people of the South, now suffering the horrors of poverty and tyranny.

What the respectable persons who sign the address say of their city and State will apply with equal force to Richmond and Virginia—nay, to the whole South. We make the following extract:

"We do most honestly and unreservedly declare that, so far as we have any knowledge or belief, interference has never been attempted by the white citizens of this city or State with the fullest exercise by the freedmen, individually or collectively, of all the rights, civil and political, which they asserted as belonging to them. They have had their meetings, and never with interference; they have voted, and never with disturbance; they have assembled in Convention, passing a Constitution for their government and ours, without interruption; and under that Constitution they are now sitting as a Legislature, framing laws for the people of the State, removing officers, imposing taxes, and exercising the functions of legislation which involve the property, life and liberty of the citizens, without a show of violence, without almost a complaint on the part of those who are excluded from all participation in proceedings which so deeply and intimately affect them. But all of this has not been sufficient to satisfy them that the privileges so enjoyed by them were complete, unless they included the absolute domination and control of the white population—a domination and control so exclusive and absolute that it would embrace person and property, and even extend to thought and speech. To this condition is the white population of this city now at this time reduced, and in this condition they are forced to see the evidence of a further purpose, to enforce this denial to them of every privilege, and to hold every right which belongs to them subject to the caprice of those who are the dupes and the victims of the bad men who have poisoned their hearts, and for the most selfish and base purposes destroyed for them the comfort, contentment and happiness they might have enjoyed."

This highly respectable and most trustworthy body of gentlemen have laid their address before President Johnson, and assured him that in case of riot the police would be utterly unable to protect the city, and requesting that a United States force be kept there to preserve order.

THE JUDICIARY.

Extract from an address delivered by Wm. Eaton, Jr., at Davidson College, in July, 1859.

"I fear that some of the States have had judicial demagogues who enter the excited arena of party, soil the ermien by canvassing for their seats, and have an eye to their own prospects of promotion more than to their duty, while dispensing, or rather pretending to dispense, justice from the bench. I hope that such characters are rare, and that no part of America will ever know many of them. Whatever indications of degeneracy may be found among the States of this Union, over whatever scenes the patriot may blush or weep, God in his infinite mercy forbid that the temple of justice shall be desecrated, or that the humblest of those who minister at its shrine shall forget their exalted and sacred duties! Heaven forbid that pollution shall reach the sanctuary where liberty and life must fly for protection! The people of America cannot too highly appreciate the importance of an able, learned, upright and impartial judiciary, one which shall command universal respect, and deserve and enjoy the entire confidence of our citizens. Without such a judiciary we have no adequate shield and safeguard for our dearest and best rights. Every man, woman and child throughout this wide expanse of States and Territories has a strong, direct and immediate personal concern in the proper administration of justice. If the judiciary is lowered in merit and qualifications, in precisely the same proportion is impaired our security for life and everything which makes life worth having. Our courts of judicature ought to afford an asylum far beyond the reach of the storms which sweep over the political world, and the limpid stream of justice ought never to be defiled by the prejudices and passions which grow out of the party contests of the day. Our Judges ought always to be men of superior talents and acquirements, of high moral worth and inflexible integrity, and by all means men of spotless purity in the paths of private life. Marshall, Wythe, Kent, Iredell and Gaston were models of judicial excellence, who honored the ermine by their talents, learning and virtues, more than they were honored by its stainless robes."

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:
The PREPARATORY September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 19th.
This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of the youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men and of visiting Libraries and Collections in science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.
The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges—Number of students the past year, 444. For Catalogues or further information, address,

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For 23 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable which effected an entire cure and I have had no return of it.
Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that it speedily cured a large number of persons. My patients were strewed in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.
By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the Ointment myself and offer it for sale. A fine number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.
Price of box $1, and postage. (Five cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE RADICAL WAR PLOT—RETALIATION—INCENDIARISM.

We charge the Radicals of North Carolina with the deliberate purpose of provoking collision and war in this State, in order to intimidate and prevent the people from going to the polls. Our people are proverbial for their quietness, their love of law and order, and their forbearance under great provocation. They are totally opposed to riot, and will do nothing to provoke it, but the incendiary and war-like purposes of the Radicals astonish them to be on the alert.

Upon the utterly false assumption that the people of North Carolina are bent upon the forcible removal of the present State government, they are adopting a line of policy which, if their advice be taken, will force collision, riot and bloodshed.

Never, in the history of politics in this State, has a party been so unscrupulous, so violent and incendiary in its declarations, so reckless of the public peace and quiet, as the Radical party. They do not hesitate to advise and justify theft, burglary, arson and murder, in retaliation upon the Conservatives and Democrats, if they refuse to employ on their premises men who belong to a secret, oathbound association, and who are known to be opposed to their well-being and interests.

Men in high position, law makers, and executors of the law, do not hesitate to counsel the violation of law, the breaking up of the peace of society, and the letting loose upon the community all the engines of discord and riot, in order to provoke the shedding of blood and civil war.

The address to the people of the State, professedly by the members of the Legislature, is infamously incendiary,—a wicked and slanderous effort to excite the most bitter feeling on the part of the blacks towards the whites. Every signer of that document is a violater of the peace and good order of society, a libeller of his fellow citizens, and has made himself amenable to laws of his own making. This document, though written with the hypocrisy and malice of a demon, yet professes to reason, to expostulate, and to warn, while its manifest object is to defame, slander and vilify the best citizens of the State, in order to make them the objects of the greater revenge and hatred of those they aim to excite against them.

Gentlemen, who have read that document, ascribe its authorship, from its style and manner, to one of the associate Justices of the Supreme Court, instead of the supple man who worked himself into the U. S. Senate. We care not to know the writer, except to hold him up to the scorn of the public. We envy not the heart of any human being, who could pen so infamous, so vile a paper. Hear it:

"We do not question the legal right of any man to employ whom he pleases, or not to employ at all. We do not deny that if a poor man come to our door in the cold and storm of night, we have the right to deny him admittance. But if he perish before morning, whether we would not, in the sight of God, be murderers, is another question."

Now who is ready to feed the hungry and clothe the naked poor, white or black among us, as the Conservatives and Democrats? Who so friendly, who so considerate of the waste of the poor negroes, as their old owners and friends? But who of them can help the poor and the needy, if the negroes join in with carpet-bag renegades, who come South to plunder all they have, and with the few native scallawags, few of whom pay any taxes, to tax and destroy what they have? If the negroes continue to join hands with those who waste and destroy what we have, by taxation, wasteful expenditure and public plunder, what will be left either to employ them or feed and clothe them by charity?

Notice the direct appeal of this address to the negroes, to commit theft and arson, burglary and murder:

"Did it never occur to you, ye gentlemen of education, property and character, ye men and especially ye women, who never received anything from these colored people, but services, kindness and protection—did it never occur to you, that these same people, who are so very bad, will not be willing to sleep in the cold, when your houses are denied them, merely because they will not vote as you do? That they may not be willing to starve while they are willing to work for bread? Did it never occur to you that revenge, which is so sweet to you, may be as sweet to them?—Hear us, if nothing else you will hear, and it never occur to you that if you kill their children with hunger, they will kill your children with fear? Did it never occur to you, that if you good people maliciously determine that they shall have no shelter, they may determine that you shall have no shelter?"

What, in all the annals of party in North Carolina, can anything be found as bad, as incendiary as the foregoing? And this is only a specimen of this demon like paper, which has been scattered over the State.

Moreover, listen to the wild, ranting, vile, violent and incendiary language of Windy Billy Henderson, of Davidson, of mule-flesh notoriety, et cet., et cet., in a simple invitation to the Union Leagues to meet at Raleigh, at the barbecue on the 16th of Sept. After working himself up into a tempest of passion over a lie of his own making: that the Conservatives and Democrats of North Carolina intend, should Seymour and Blair be elected, to drive the present State government out by force of arms—a most infamous falsehood—he says to the negro Leagues:

"But, thank God, the Congress of the nation will be with us, and Grant will be at the head of the army. Should Seymour attempt to raise his pernicidal hand against the Republic, he would be hurled to ruin in an instant. Should he not attempt to use the army in his revolutionary plan, but call upon Southern rebels to overthrow the State governments, what must be the inevitable result?

Brother heroes! we would not deceive you. We would not have you close your eyes to the dangers which threaten us; we would not cry peace when there is no peace. Should the desperate conspirators, who almost ruined our people in the late rebellion, attempt to overthrow the present State government, we tell you in all earnestness that the flames which were lighted in St. Domingo will grow pale and dim before the fires which shall light up this Southern horizon. The freemen of North Carolina will not SUBMIT to be trampled upon by rebels whose hands are yet red with the blood of their fathers, sons and brothers. There is not a friend of the government, with a spark of manhood in his soul, who would not willingly die sooner than submit to the infamy and degradation which his old oppressors would heap upon him, if they could get their heel once more upon his throat."

Such is the stuff constantly belched forth by those cowardly incendiary men, who would not hesitate to involve this State in civil war, if they could escape. This they intend to do, when they have succeeded in lighting the torch of civil war. But we trust there is sense enough, coolness and decision enough, among the friends of law and order in the State, to prevent it.

Worse than all are the more recent emanations of one of the foulest infidel Editors of the Standard, is one of the editorials which has fallen recently from his poisonous pen on "retaliation." The vileness of this article has attracted the notice of well meaning men of both parties, and calls forth general condemnation. Let the reader ponder the following from that article, which we have not time or space to comment upon at present:

"Something must be done. The law of self preservation must necessarily be obeyed. Something must be done at all hazards; but the more quietly and peaceably it can be done so much the better. The question then is, can there be any remedy under the forms of law? We think so, unquestionably. Of course it is not to be supposed that men and women and children will starve to death while corn is still standing in the fields and while hogs and cattle are not kept under lock and key. But these are matters of minor importance and are to be expected, however much the necessity may be deplored. What we mean is, that there is one efficient remedy for this wholesale crusade of oppression carried on against the colored race to starve him into voting against his choice. The remedy is this:

Whenever the Republicans have control of a county, let a meeting of the Commissioners be called at once. Let them make out a list of all the colored stone-masons, brick-layers, plasterers, painters and carpenters. Then let them select a site of sufficient dimensions for a village of from five to fifteen hundred colored paupers as the case may be. The work itself will give employment to a considerable number of persons and some time will be required to complete it. Then let the County paupers be moved in and be provided with houses and food at the expense of those who have made them paupers. Let the tax be so laid as to affect only the large land holder. Not one in twenty owns any land at all, and the large land-holders are much rarer. This tax will fall lightly upon the great mass of the people, while the oppressive landholder will be compelled to throw his broad acres upon the market to raise money to pay the taxes. And in addition to this, let the Legislature deprive these exacting tyrants of the benefits of the stay law and compel them to pay their debts. Pass their lands under the Sheriff's hammer and give the poor a chance to buy land."

Such are said to be the ravings of the Attorney General of North Carolina; such his notions of morals; such his expositions of law; worthier far of the rantings of a debauched libertine or of drunken revels.

THE RADICAL GAME.—During the next sixty days, as the Richmond Enquirer observes, we shall sup full of horrors. A thorough canvass of the future, judged by the standard of the necessities of Radicalism, renders it morally certain that within the ensuing two months, eight thousand four hundred and ninety-three loyal blacks, and six thousand, two hundred and seventy scalla-waggers, will be mercilessly murdered; four thousand "loil" of both colors will have their ears cut off and be otherwise mutilated; twelve hundred loyal clergymen and whiskey inspectors will receive nine hundred lashes apiece unless they are sent to the penitentiary too soon; seventy five loyal newspapers will be Ku-kluxed, and ten thousand loyal bullocks will die of the cattle disease!!

ONLY ONE TICKET IN THE FIELD.—A former resident of the New England States, who, however, has been residing in North Carolina for some years, has just returned from a Northern tour. He represents that no doubt, whatever, is entertained of the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair. Grant is hardly considered to be in the field.

THE RADICAL ORGAN.

Since the sale, real or fictitious, of the Standard newspaper, by W. W. Holden & Son, it has been professedly under the control of "N. Paige & Co." "N. Paige" is understood to have been a former attaché of the New York Tribune, but who constitute the "Co." is wrapped in mystery—except that it is believed that Gen. Littlefield is one of the prominent managers of the "Ring." There are those who surmise that "Co." is but an abbreviation of Coleman, as it is generally supposed that the promising youth, who bears that name, and whose duties as "Attorney General" impose no restrictions upon his time, is the principal writer of the foulest domestic compositions that appear in the Standard, as leaders. This supposition is strengthened by the fact that some of the recent Editorials in that paper are tinged with the spirit of Infidelity which the erratic young man, who is not without a streak of a certain sort of genius, is said to have imbibed during a brief sojourn in Germany.

However this may be,—whether attributable to the German transcendentalism of the stripling Attorney General, so-called, or to the infusion, through the Yankee part of the establishment, into the paper, of the many prurient isms that abound in New England and find their mouth piece and exponent in the New York Tribune,—certain is it that the organ of Radicalism in North Carolina, as it is fit and natural that it should, has, of late, assumed a bold front of disregard for Religion and all the other sacred and venerable institutions that protect society, preserve morals, purify government or make life valuable. Our attention has been galled to this sickening development frequently of late; and the regret is generally expressed that we should have brazenly advocated in North Carolina those pestilent doctrines which have upheaved the foundations of virtuous society and good morals in other times and places.

Radicalism is essentially revolutionary and destructive; it wages war against the distinctions which God has made; it seeks to undermine the well settled foundations of society; it is opposed to all that is time-honored and conservative in government; it hates all that is revered and respectable in social life, and, it would seem, it is ready even to assail, as an old fogy and obsolete idea, the Christian Church! Here is a sample of the recent utterances of this Radical-Infidel teaching, as preached by the Yankee-Radical paper in this City:

"Not alone in the politics of nations is it (Radicalism) busy. The Churches, hoary with age, and the systems of religion, consecrated by the piety of centuries, are trembling at its tread."

And it proceeds, in the same connection, to declare "that error (Qu? systems of religion,) and superstition (Qu? that of the Churches) flee before it (Radicalism) aghast!"

Infidelity and Fetichism are plainly set before us as the consequence of this Radical spirit, which, had it the power, would stride, demon like, over the dearest interests and surest safeguards of our social and political organization. We cannot believe that our people are prepared to embrace this monster. And feeling sure that the insane ravings of the Standard, as at present conducted, must have the effect of disgusting our steady, sober people, unused to such wicked fantasies, with Radicalism in all its bearings, we can but rejoice that its organ is blown by such hands as at present control it.

The Washington correspondent of the New York World, speaking of the probabilities of the assembling of Congress, says that "the Southern Radicals are very much alarmed at the prospect of a Democratic victory in the Southern States, and are sending a shriek up for the September session. The Northern Radical members, on the contrary, are advising against a session. They want to remain at home and attend to their canvass for the next Congress. They declare that a session in September would leave the Democrats a fair field in the North and West, to say nothing of impracticable legislation forced on the part of the "carpet-bag" elements.

HOW THE MONEY GOES.—Col. Wm. Selden, formerly United States Marshal of the District of Columbia, and now Collector at Norfolk, Va., reports to Secretary McCulloch that his investigation of the books and accounts of his Radical predecessor disclosed a defalcation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

This is but a sample of Radical honesty.

CAUGHT IN A STRAITJAP.—It is confessed by Senator Thayer and others who have just reported at Washington, after a thorough tour of the South, that there is no look for Grant here; that the negroes can no longer be relied on, and that "we have got caught in our own trap."

THE enthusiasm for Seymour and Blair throughout the West is so great that the attendance at meetings is estimated by the acre—"acres of live Democrats." Grant had the pleasure of witnessing one in St. Louis the other day, and doubtless thought it an "acher."

THE Greensburg (Ind.) Expositor, heretofore a Radical abolition sheet, has declared for Seymour and Blair. It says that "the German Republicans of Indiana are abandoning that party by thousands, and enrolling themselves among the supporters of Seymour and Blair."

THE THIRD DISTRICT.—Col. R. T. Bennett, of Anson, is announced as the Democratic candidate for Congress, in the 3rd. District,—subject to the decision of a nominating Convention. Col. B. is a ready debater, a gallant gentleman, and every way fitted for a strong canvass.

THE Hon. George H. Pendleton, after a glorious canvass in Maine, is now speaking in Connecticut to immense and enthusiastic audiences. The enthusiasm is indescribable.

GOVERNORS of States in actual antagonistic conflict with those States. That is the way the Southern States are "reconstructed."

WILL THERE BE A SEPTEMBER SESSION OF CONGRESS.

Forney hints that there will be. He has, as Falstaff phrases it, reasons as plentiful as blackberries for desiring the extra session. To let our readers see what sort of lies this infamous and unprincipled demagogue tells in order to strengthen the Radical party, we quote his last letter to his Philadelphia paper:

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25, 1868.

It begins to look as if Congress would be constrained to meet on the 21st of September. The intelligence from the South is daily more threatening. Gen. Reynolds, the new commander of Texas, writes that the condition of the rebels is a reproach to civilization; Gov. Brownlow's life is constantly threatened in Tennessee; Kentucky resounds with threats; Alabama is literally in a state of siege; while Georgia and South Carolina are overrun by such madmen as Cobb, Toombs, Ben Hill, Hampton, Aldrich, and Perry. It is difficult to say what Congress can do to arrest their violence; but it is certain that if these things are done in the face of the possibility of its meeting a thousand worse calamities will befall the Union men if the 21st of September is allowed to pass without a session. The silence of Andrew Johnson, and his refusal up to this time to endorse Seymour, may be only a truce, to be followed, in the permanent absence of Congress, by open hostilities, which will be all the more fatal because impossible to check.

The propriety of calling the Republican members to Washington has been confided to the discretion of General Schenck, of Ohio, and Senator Morgan, of New York.—They are prudent men, and will not act hastily; but up to the present writing nothing has transpired to make us feel that our friends in the South will be safe or comfortable in the absence of Congress.—The judgment of these friends seem to be unanimous in favor of a session.

OCCASIONAL.

THE PROSPECTS OF THE CAMPAIGN.—The New York Round Table is an able literary journal, with Republican tendencies. After the nomination of Gov. Seymour it predicted his defeat. But in its issue of August 22d it takes it back:

"Did we judge merely from indications on the surface, this conviction might remain unchanged. We have, however, become persuaded that there is a powerful undercurrent of popular dissatisfaction with Radical measures which is gaining rather than losing strength with the passage of time, and that consequently, the chances, which at present we estimate as nearly even, may incline in November, in a victorious degree, to the Democratic side. * * From present indications, however, we are led to believe that the three great States of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio will throw themselves into the scale for Seymour and Blair; and, should they do so, not all the hosts of New England, backed as they may be by the West and South, by voters black or white, constitutional or unconstitutional, will avail to prevent the Republican forces from kicking the beam."

For the Sentinel.

Messrs. Pell & Gales:—As there is a Convention to assemble soon in Franklinton, to nominate a candidate for this District, to represent us in the next Congress of the United States, we would beg leave to suggest the name of our fellow-county man, THOMAS M. ARGO, as a man suitable and well qualified to fill that important place. He is a man of energy and ability, and he will thoroughly canvass the District, if he receives the nomination. His course in the Legislature has been such as to commend him very greatly to every Democrat or Conservative in the State. He is the very man to meet and handle that Radical carpet-bagger, Dewease, and to beat him in the next contest.

If the District wants a man of energy and strength in this coming contest, let them nominate Thos. M. Argo.

Old Orange is wide awake. She is fighting in this contest for all that is dear to man. She is fighting in the last great struggle we shall ever be permitted to make, if we allow the Radicals to be elected, and in November you will see that old Orange will roll up a majority for Seymour and Blair of 1,000 or 1,200. Let every man, that loves the Constitution, that loves freedom and free institutions, work while he can, work while he may, that our people may once more be free to live, under the Constitution, as handed down to us by our fore fathers. Then the people of the State will bless you, and the Heavenly Father will bless and reward you for all your labors in bringing back our State to its original purity and happiness.

MANY CITIZENS OF ORANGE.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR.—Immense meetings ratifying the nomination of Seymour and Blair, are being held in all the principal cities of the Union. It would require a newspaper as big as a blanket to chronicle all or even half of them. We have before us a list of a dozen rousing meetings in various parts of the country, at which the people turned out in unexampled numbers, and many Republicans took a part in the proceedings in favor of Seymour and Blair. There seems to be a popular feeling that this ticket is going to win, and the doubtful men are fast "coming in out of the cold."—Rich. Whig.

PLATO DURHAM.—We see, by the Raleigh Sentinel, that this staunch and talented Conservative, of Cleaveland county, has authorized his name to be announced in that paper as a candidate for a seat in Congress to represent this,—the 7th—Congressional District. Mr. Durham has earned an enviable fame in the State, for his bold and manly course in the Congressional Convention that framed the so called Constitution now governing our State, and as a member of the present Radical rebel Legislature.—We know not who the Convention which meets to-day will nominate, but we know of no one whom we would more willingly support than Plato Durham.—Asheville News.

"I have no word to say against the negro. He is free; now let him remain free. Let him be happy, and let him work that he may be happy. Let him earn his bread by the sweat of his brow. But I am opposed to handing over to him the control of the States, or of the General Government. I say that our fathers were right in saying that this was a white man's government, to be controlled by white men. I say that I do not deem the negro to be my equal. If any gentleman thinks in regard to himself that the negro is his equal, I have no strife with him on the subject. We meet the question squarely; we are against negro suffrage.—Hon. T. A. Hendricks, of Indiana.

A gentleman who returned last week from a three-weeks' pleasure trip to the West, Niagara, and the White Mountains, says that in that time, neither at a hotel, on a steamer, nor in the cars, in a single instance, did he hear any political conversation introduced by a friend of Grant! They were always on the defensive, and feeble at that.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—General Life Insurance Agent wanted for the State of North Carolina: Address Excelsior Life Insurance Co., 63 William St., N. Y.

FOR INTERESTING matter see first page.

FRANKLIN'S.—There was a fine meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club, at this precinct, in this county, on Friday. Able and spirited addresses, which elicited great enthusiasm, were made by Messrs. M. A. Bledsoe, J. Q. DeCarteret and C. M. Busbee.—There was but one scallawag present. We learn that this Club now numbers 103 names,—more, if we are not greatly mistaken, than voted the Conservative ticket at the late election.

FLASH IN THE PAN.—The Radical meeting in the Court House, on Friday night.—Only two "white" men and but a small number of blacks. Push on the column!

AT A LATE meeting of Holden's Commissioners for Henderson, a negro member of that august Board stated that the duties of the office, to which he had been appointed, were so engrossing, that he could not find time to make provision for his family, and that he would like for the Council to make an appropriation for his benefit! Hurrah for Grant and Colfax!

"Judge" Watts now resides in Franklinton. He is the only scallawag they have ever had in that worthy village, and is, consequently, an object of much curiosity. Franklin county is the last place the "Judge" should have selected for a sojourning place. His exploits in hunting runaway negroes with dogs, during the war, are too familiar even to the few "trooly loil" in the county,—some five in number, according to Senator Wynne.

A STRONG MOVEMENT.—The last Warrenton Courier contains a letter from Messrs. J. J. Quackenbush, & Co., of Petersburg, Va., addressed to Mr. Garland, of Warren, the President of the Warren Agricultural Society, proposing to buy from 25,000 to 50,000 acres of land in that county, for the settlement of a company of Hollanders, now in Pennsylvania. They offer to pay from $6 to $7 per acre, half cash down, &c.—Mr. Garland invited Mr. Quackenbush to attend the County Agricultural Society, which met on Saturday last, and it is believed arrangements can be made for them. This looks very much as if foreigners can be induced to come South to buy lands.

IT IS confidently expected that the State of Georgia will give fifty thousand Democratic majority.

VERMONT votes to-morrow. It will go Radical, of course,—the Republican majorities in the State, for years past, having ranged between fifteen and thirty thousand. It is one of the few States in the Union that are probably certain for Grant and Colfax. We confidently anticipate, however, a considerable reduction, to-morrow, of the Radical majority.

COL. W. J. CLARKE, who was such a terrible fire-eater, that he went to Montgomery, before North Carolina seceded, to obtain a commission in the regular army of the Confederate States, made a Radical speech in Newbern, a few nights since. We had previously heard of his conversion.—He has followed the illustrious example of Cantwell. Choose your company, gentlemen, and make up your minds to it for life!

THE WINDMILL SQUIRES.—We published, on Saturday, an official effusion from one of Holden's Windmill Squires, in Wayne. Here is another from Warren,—verbatim, not a letter being added to or taken from:

"Waren Co N C August 14 George Field junar you ar hereby with The authority to a rest ned davis According to your Evidence. A. Spruill."

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE CO.—The benefits of advertising are proven every day by the success which attends every enterprise which pays for printer's ink. We are highly gratified to learn from our friend, Capt. A. W. Lawrence, the excellent Agent of the Brooklyn Insurance Company, that his Company is doing handsomely and is rapidly gaining in public favor. It is an excellent Company, and Capt. Lawrence is a capital Agent. Indeed, the Insurance Companies, generally, are represented by some of our best men in the State.

MEETING AT BANKS'.—There was a very pleasant meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club of Panther Branch District, at Banks', on Saturday. The white men of this District are a unit, and the Club now numbers 111, good and true. Seaton Gales, Esq., by invitation, addressed the Club on Saturday, in a speech of some length. The next meeting will be held on next Saturday week, and able speakers will be present. It is the intention of the Club to give a large barbecue in October.

AGRICULTURAL MATTERS.—We are glad to find space to-day for the excellent letter of Prof. Kerr, the State Geologist, to a Committee of the State Agricultural Society, on Manures and Agricultural Societies. His suggestions are valuable, and we hope every farmer, however small his farm, will at once commence to make manure with the means in possession of every farmer who has any industry and care. Agricultural Societies should be formed in every county. We have pressed this upon the farmers of the State repeatedly. Prof. Kerr's suggestion to form three Division Societies, we consider very proper and opportune, and the reasons for it are cogent and well founded.

CROPS IN EASTERN CAROLINA.—A gentlemen just from Edgecombe informs us that the prospect for a corn crop in the Eastern Counties is very fine. This will hold true, we think, of the greater part of the State, except where the young corn was destroyed by tornadoes or other disasters.

The cotton crop is not so promising except upon high, dry lands, and even this is in danger from the frequent latter rains.—On the low, stiff lands the plant is growing too rapidly for a good yield. We set it down, that the cotton crop of this State will be a short one, hardly equal to the last crop. Prices will be well sustained until the new crop begins to be forced into the market too largely for the demand. We hope our North Carolina planters will only sell when the article pays.

SIX white men, one of them a very prominent Radical heretofore, and all of them Squires by Holden's appointment, have left the League in Cumberland and joined the Seymour and Blair Club.

For the Sentinel.

THE GREAT RADICAL FIZZLE IN SMITHFIELD.

Flaming Posters—the best that could be gotten up in the Standard office—were placed in the hands of the "trooly loil" and prominently and securely nailed up to many an old turpentine tree, calling together by order of the "Executive Committee," the faithful of Johnston county, to assemble in grand mass, in the town of Smithfield, on the 26th. of August, A. D. 1868, as an off set to the Selma demonstration of the 11th.

Extensive preparations were made for a torch light procession at night; three cornered bright tin frames, numbering fifty, were procured at an enormous expense in Raleigh, and were duly shipped, and delivered to Lt. Graves, in Selma. Many a darkey, so it was said, looked forward to the 26th. as a day of jubilation. Mister Jo Holden, and a whole car load of orators, were certainly coming down on the morning train—and the "good time," to say nothing of the "mule and the forty acres," would certainly come to pass!!

The 26th. arrived, and so did the morning train from Raleigh, bringing General Abbott and another man, whom they dubbed Judge Alden. These two men, Capt. Mosher, two negroes, and no more, piloted by Col. Cook, made up the grand cortege, to attend the burial of Radicalism in the town of Smithfield. Gaily (!) they went on—arrived in the ancient and goodly town aforesaid, and, to their utter dismay, the expected crowd, in the language of an old friend, "warn't thar!" By the most liberal estimate, outside of the population of the town, there were not present more than 200 negroes and two dozen white scalawags! The speaking commenced—was gone through with—and the only speech made entitled to anything like common sense, was by Mr. Pou, who "begged the question," in attempting to comment on the letter of Richmond M. Pearson. The efforts of both Gen. Abbott and Judge Alden were sheer abortions—four month's fledglings, without form and destitute of life—and the grand pow-wow thus ended—the tin frames were not produced, the torch-light procession didn't come off! Thirty negroes, including both sexes, burnt six rosin barrels, fired a few rounds, played "two little pigs and a bob tail sow" on a drum and fife, and "they all went home in the morning!"

Messrs. Editors, the cause of the carpet-baggers "is lost" in this county—mark the prediction!—by a majority of at least 300. Many of the more sensible colored men are uniting with the Conservative party, and they openly wear the Seymour and Blair badge, and bid defiance to their old Union League brothers. Radicalism is on its last legs in Johnston county.

JOHNSTON.

LETTER FROM THE STATE GEOLOGIST.

To G. W. Whitfield, Esq., Hon. D. M. Barringer and Col. Jno. L. Bridgers, Committee of the State Agricultural Society:

GENTLEMEN:—By way of postscript to a recent communication on the subject of manures, I enclose a brief article on composts, which was recently prepared as a general answer to enquiries on this subject, which are frequently addressed to me by practical farmers in different parts of the State.

With the view of promoting the manufacture of manures in a small way, by all our farmers, and the saving of an enormous amount of material which annually goes to waste for want of a little care and a little instruction, it is desirable to place in their hands a few simple compost formulæ, applicable anywhere in the State, and calling for only such materials as are generally accessible.

Here are two which should be prepared in summer or fall, to be used the following spring; the materials may be either thoroughly mingled and then thrown into heaps, or laid down in alternate strata.

Formula 1.	Peat,	1 cord.
	Ashes,	10 bush.

For ashes may be substituted twice the quantity of marl, or of leached ashes.

Formula 2	Peat,	3 cords.
	Lime,	5 bush.
	Salt,	1 " "

For peat may be substituted muck, leaf mold, pond mud, &c. Dissolve the salt, slake the lime with the solution, and then mix with the peat, &c.

The following may be prepared in any season, and in warm weather will be ready for use in two or three weeks; over-heating should be prevented by watering, and occasional turning:

Formula 3	Peat	2 cords.
	Stable Manure,	1 cord.

This will give three cords, nearly as rich as stable manure itself.

Formula 4.	Peat,	10 cords.
	Night soil,	1 " "

For night soil, may be substituted the same quantity of guano (Peruvian,) hen manure, cotton seed meal, fish, fish-offal, or any putrescent animal matter. A dead horse will convert 5 cords of peat into excellent manure, sufficient to enrich an acre of land.

Formula 5.	Straw,	3 tons
	Ashes,	3 bush.
	Plaster,	1 " "
	Night soil,	5 " "
	Salt,	½ " "

The result will be nearly equal to so much guano. For straw, may be substituted leaves, weeds, potato vines, corn stalks, Chinese cane, &c.

Plaster is an excellent addition to any of the above formulæ. To any of them also may be added with great advantage, yard sweepings, scrapings of hen house, smoke house and privy, kitchen and chamber slops, animal offal of all sorts, soot, ashes, waste brine, &c.; all of which are turned to valuable account, instead of being allowed to pollute the air by their noxious exhalations, and to poison the wells by their leachings, as so often happens, especially in towns. These may seem small matters, but they are not so to those who look for the "causes of things," and cannot be so regarded by any to whom the health and wealth of society are not also such.

Perhaps you will not consider it an intrusion if I add a few suggestions on the subject of the revival of agricultural Societies in the State, and the best means of promoting the ends which your Society has in view.

I desire to call your attention to some considerations, on the propriety of organizing three subordinate Agricultural Societies, corresponding to the three natural divisions of the State, viz: Eastern, Middle and Western. These regions are as diverse in their leading geographical, climatic and agricultural features as if separated by half a continent. The Eastern division is characterized by the prevalence of level or slightly undulating plains and by peaty, alluvial and sandy soils; the middle, by a rolling and hilly surface and clayey and gravelly granitic soils; the western by a succession of lofty mountain ranges with infinite cross-chains and spurs, intersected and divided by narrow valleys and elevated plateaus, with various soils, generally gravelly and open, often clayey. And these differences are accompanied by climatic features quite as distinctive, the western section being, in this respect, as strongly diverse from the eastern, as the latter is from New York. And it is apparent that the agricultural products, the modes and implements of cultivation, the means and sources of fertilization—in a word, all those matters which constitute the staple of the discussions of agricultural societies, must show a corresponding diversity. What interest, e g have the farmers of Buncombe in the discussion and experimentation of marls and peat, or in the cultivation of the scuppernong, or cotton? And on the other hand, why should the farmer of Edgecombe or Perquimans waste his time in studying the conditions of stock-raising, or the manufacture of cheese, butter, &c?

The suggestion I would make is, that the leading farmers of the middle section of the State,—Mecklenburg, Guilford, Orange, &c.,—unite their influence and efforts to form a Society for the discussion and development of those points which are common to the farming interests of those Counties, such as the proper selection and rotation of crops, the best methods of renovating exhausted soils, the kinds, sources, manufacture, cost, transportation and modes of use of fertilizers, &c.; while a similar association of farmers in the East take up such subjects as market gardening, the utilization of marls, peat, &c., the cultivation of the vine and other matters of special importance to the agriculture of this region; while in the West they will naturally occupy themselves with cattle, fruit, dairy-farming, &c.

There would remain a large residuum of subjects, whose interest is as wide as the limits of the State, which would belong to the proper province of the State Agricultural Society. Among these may be mentioned agricultural education, the Agricultural College, the conduct of a State Agricultural paper, the introduction of agricultural implements and machinery; the manufacture, transportation and inspection of fertilizers, the whole matter of immigration and labor, the requisite changes in our system of farming and the like.

You will no doubt agree with me that it is time to consider these matters in a practical way, with a view to immediate and effectual action. Very respectfully,

W. C. KERR.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29, M.

W. W. Warden, heretofore the short-hand writer to the President, has been promoted Assistant Private Secretary to the President. Mr. Warden is well known as "Dale," of the Baltimore Sun, "Cleo," of the New Orleans Times, and "Wallace, of the Richmond Dispatch.

It is announced through the papers, supplied with White House items, by the Assistant Private Secretary, that Otto H. Russell has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, for the fourth District of Virginia. It will be satisfactory to papers supplied by the Associated Press to know, that their Agents' expostulations against the White House news monopoly, are met by the Assistant Private Secretary's statement that Connery of the Herald gets no news at the White House.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.—THE LEGISLATURE.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 29, M.

The police of New Orleans has not been paid for five months. On yesterday a Committee from the force waited upon the Mayor, setting forth, that many officers were, without means to procure the commonest necessaries of life, that their families were in actual want, that the best officers had been reduced to absolute beggary, and had to solicit from the charitable, whose residences they guarded, for food to take to their families. It is stated that it is not charity that they ask but pay for labor honestly performed. The Council considered the memorial and passed a resolution declaring their inability to move in the matter and referred the memorial to the Legislature.

In the House, on yesterday, an act passed amending the charter for the city of Jefferson and providing for a new election of city officers on Jan. 1, and empowering the Governor to remove the present incumbents. The latter were elected under the present Constitution. The House also passed a Bill prohibiting any distinction on account of race, color or previous condition, on the routes of travel, places of entertainment and public resort.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND THE HOLDEN AND BROWNLOW STANDING ARMIES!—THE SEPTEMBER SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Aug 29, P. M.

Hon Jno. C. Burch and Col. L. C. Beech were recently appointed as a delegation, by the Tennessee Conservatives, to visit the President. Burch unable to come, delegated his powers to Col. David Looney, who, with Col. Beech, has had a prolonged interview with the President.

The President referred the delegation to the recent orders as to the limit of Executive power, but assured them that every power authorized by the Constitution and laws would be used to secure freedom of the ballot, without interference from the State or Federal troops.

The President takes the ground that the Constitution FORBIDS the maintenance of standing armies in any State, and that the Act of 1865, disbodying and forbidding the Militia and volunteer force, is absolute in this respect.

The President's ground is that the Militia duty is incumbent upon every citizen, that it is an emergency force, subject to be called from the plow or loom at any moment, and from which no citizen can escape; but that a standing army of paid troops, in any State, unless called for and controlled by Federal authority, is repugnant to the Constitution and laws. Every power of the Government will be used to PUT DOWN standing armies of paid troops in the States.

Nothing definite regarding the September session. It seems to be generally conceded, that it will be too late to arm the Southern Militia, in time for the election, and, as there appears to be no other business, the meeting is improbable.

Attorney General Evarts has advised that a habeas corpus for Mudd, Spangler and Arnold, has been applied for in the Southern District of Florida.

Rosecrans visited the President to-day.

FROM AUGUSTA.

AUGUSTA, Aug. 29 P. M.

The Democrats are making a vigorous campaign and are quite confident of carrying the State, by a large majority.

The negroes are extremely indignant at the effort—" being made to unseat the colored members of the Legislature.

"A Radical movement.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

ATLANTA, Aug 29, P M.

In the House, Sims (negro) had the floor, in defence of the eligibility of negro members.

The point of order was raised whether the fifteen minute rule was in force. The Chair decided that each member had unlimited sway.

Sims then continued his speech, and said that if they were turned out, they would rally again. Such a rally the people of Georgia have never seen before. The Northern people love us, because we are citizens of the same blood. If all the tribunals of Georgia should sustain our expulsion, it shall not stand, &c.

Sims held the floor during the session, and opposed every motion to extend the time to give him a chance to finish and held the floor to adjournment.

Turner (negro) will follow Sims and so on, till twenty-seven negro members have made separate defences unless cut short by a vote of the House.

UNIVERSAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate
25	$17.45	$27.48	45	$33.68	$70.18
30	19 57	31 10	50	74.07	104 27
35	21.94	34.94	55	108.27	142 86
40	25.07	61.44	60	162 37	201 07

Example.—A boy aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays $19.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215.50, his policy will be good for $1,215 50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for the full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur UNDER OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption of homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual to such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and all be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also to remind them of the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board; when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

CHEAP FOR CASH.

LOOK OUT FOR A. CREECH!

JUST RECEIVED, $15,000 worth of new Spring and Summer Goods, which must, at all events, be sold within the next sixty days, if possible.—If you want

LADIES' DRESS GOODS,

I have a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, and universally admitted, that to buy your goods. This can be, and is substantiated daily, by hundreds.

CREECH'S IS THE PLACE

If you want Cassimeres, Tweeds, Kentucky Jeans, Cotton and Linen Goods of all descriptions, and suitable for gentlemen, boys and children's wear, CREECH'S is the place to look for them.

At Low Prices,

Why, you may go up one side of Fayetteville street and down the other; yes, and then the cross streets, and you will be bound to come to the conclusion that CREECH'S is the place you had better do your trading. If you want trimmed or untrimmed, CREECH'S is the place to get them. If you wish to purchase any style of

LADIES' BONNETS,

LADIES, MISSES OR CHILDREN'S HATS,

don't buy until you have seen CREECH'S, or you will miss a great bargain, as he has one of the largest and most beautiful assortments in the City. If you are looking for

MEN'S, BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S HATS,

Ladies, Men and Children's Shoes, why if you stop at Creech's you will surely be suited in style, quality and price.

I told the people, some time ago, that there was no House in the City that could or would sell goods cheaper than I, and now I intend to keep my word. I said then what I meant, and now mean what I say. So don't fail to come to CREECH'S, on R. Smith's corner.
